WE HEARD YOU'RE READY TO GO INTERNATIONAL.

Mission Control has informed us that you have completed your training and that your senior secret agent status means you are ready to receive an international posting. The road will be treacherous, at times you may feel that you want to give up. Persevere – you are not alone, hundreds of like minded secret agents are everywhere.

Mission Control has nominated a longtime undercover agent to supervise your mission. They might look like your teacher but they are really our most loyal and long serving of secret agents. It is important you do not blow their cover by revealing their identity to anyone. They have the details of your mission but first things first – find your farmer.

Best of luck and remember – be careful out there.

COMPLETE THE MISSION

We know you've been undercover for some time now. Mission Control has told us you're ready to submit your report at the pre-arranged confidential drop off point.
