

Submit your report

To complete Rosie's Mission your students will need to submit their report to Mission HQ. Students will have to take the information they have gained from a variety of sources and organise it before submitting it online.

The form also includes fields whereby photos can be attached. Students will need to use their 3 Student Activity Guides as prompts for the questions they need to have covered.

