

My story book

You get a little sunshine
And you get a little rain

A cow is out there grazing
One mouthful then another

She walks into the milking shed at six am and three

The cups go on the teats
And she's as happy as can be

Making lots of milk right down there in her udder

You grow a lot of grass
So the farmer can't complain