

Checking Historypin is Right for you and your Class

SETTING UP AN INQUIRY THAT FOCUSES ON LOCAL COMMUNITY STORIES ABOUT DAIRYING

ESSENTIAL QUESTION

Using the Historypin platform to learn about the local history of dairying

WHAT ARE WE LEARNING?

- Answering un-Googleable questions by using different methodologies to access and collate primary resources
- Documenting the source of a primary resource to protect copyright in an online setting
- Understanding the contribution the New Zealand dairy industry has played in community creation and cohesion

TRY THIS WITH

- Years 6-10
- Students who enjoy investigating and researching
- Students who are ready to pursue an independent inquiry

FIND

Choose
Identify
Name

Record
Show
Classify

You need a Gmail address to use Historypin, Gmail addresses are free and provide you with entry to a host of other services such as Google Docs.

If you don't have one click here to follow the steps and create one.

On any page of the website, click 'Join'

Use your Gmail address and password to login

You'll need to create a Historypin account for your class or your school.

Channels are easy to set up and they are free.

- This step by step guide talks you through the process
- Make sure you become a fan of DairyNZ Historypin channel right away

Have a walk through our content. Make sure you take a look at the region where your school is based to see what content already exists.

Find other New Zealand Schools that are already using Historypin.

APPLY

Connect
Construct
Summarise

Teach
Highlight
Point out

Use the Regional Resource Sheet and view the DairyNZ Channel to see what already exists from your local community.

With modern Google street view as the backdrop, photos appear in the spot where they were originally taken.

So other Historypin users can find your photo it is important to tag your photo with #dairynz. That way other classrooms can find your photos and use them for their own collections.

Stories are attached to each photo. To add your story to a photo click on an individual photo and then click on the story tab, and click "add your voice".

PRODUCE

Choose
Suppose
Model

Modify
Assess
Appraise

Collections and Tours bring together content around a particular topic or theme. There are many themes that exist in the context of investigating the New Zealand dairy industry.

Here are some of the more obvious ones that you might want to start your students off with:

- Butter Paper
- A&P (Agricultural and Pastoral) shows
- Advertising of Dairy Products
- Dairy Factories
- Milking Cows
- Transporting Milk from the Farm to the Factory
- Getting Milk to the customer
- People drinking New Zealand Milk
- Workers on Dairy Farms
- The first 20 Dairy factories (of 1884)
- Calf Club

SUCCESS CRITERIA

Students can check they have completed the task successfully by:

- Creating a Historypin Channel for your class
- Familiarising yourself with the key elements of Historypin
- Identifying some key themes for focus that relate well to your local community

PRINCIPLES	VALUES	KEY COMPETENCIES	LEARNING AREAS	WORD BANK	RESOURCES REQUIRED
Community engagement Learning to learn	Inquiry and curiosity Community and participation	Thinking Using language, symbols and texts Participating and contributing	Technology Social Sciences	Tags Stories Collections Tours	Historypin How To Videos